THAILAND: APPLICATIONS FOR AFFIDAVITS AND CERTIFICATION OF CORPORATE DOCUMENTS TO BE PERFORMED VIA ELECTRONIC SYSTEM

The Department of Business Development (the “DBD”) has issued a new Notification, effective on 11 January 2021, that prescribes that corporate entities who wish to apply for affidavits and certification of corporate documents from the DBD may only do so via an electronic system (the “DBD e-Service”) on the DBD website (www.dbd.go.th). Corporate entities can choose to obtain such certified documents as follows:

1. downloadable e-certificate files in pdf format; or
2. hard copies via one of the following channels:
 - EMS service; or
 - in person at the DBD Central office, DBD offices 1-6 (located in Bangkok) or any Provincial Partnership and Company Registration office; or
 - in person at Commercial Banks affiliated with the DBD e-service.

The registrar’s signature that appears on affidavits and certified documents will no longer be an actual, physical signature, but will be electronic/digital.

If you would like to discuss any of the legal implications of the matters discussed above, please contact the authors listed in the right-hand column.
